JANUARY 14, 1846.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. PEARCE made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Talbot Reed, report :

That the petition is unaccompanied by any proofs, and that the facts set forth, if sustained by evidence, would not authorize the passage of an act in its favor. He states that in 1781 he engaged as a teamster in the French army, and drove an ox team from the State of Connecticut to Yorktown, where he witnessed the surrender of Cornwallis; in view of which facts he prays to be allowed a pension.

The committee recommend that the prayer of the petitioner be not granted.
